Please tick

Your form is very important to us as it is your agreement to be a member and our record of who is entitled to use the courts (see below). Please return it either by post to Rob & Helen French, Membership Secretary, Cross in Hand Tennis Club, Hardy Roberts Playing Field, Cross in Hand, Heathfield, East Sussex, TN21 0SN or by hand to the Membership Secretary pigeonhole at the club (bottom right, near the kitchen/bar and first aid box).

Important - Please Read

The information on this form is used by the committee as a record of your membership and your email address will be used solely for club communication purposes. A list of members' names and contact numbers are published on the noticeboard to encourage inter-membership contact. Images of club members may also be used on social media where appropriate for club publicity. Completion of this form allows us to register those listed below as British Tennis Members aligned to the club.

All players on court must wear tennis shoes and appropriate sportswear.

Members of the club are entitled to book and use the courts, attend club sessions/free Fridays (juniors only) at which free tennis balls and floodlighting are provided, represent the club in matches and be at a South Coast Tennis coaching session.

Non-members must be accompanied by a member, sign in and pay the appropriate visitor fee or be at a South Coast Tennis coaching session (surcharge applies). Non-members are not entitled to book or use the courts in any other circumstance.

As a member of the club you are accepting the conditions set out above
